

Embassy
of the Federal Republic of Germany
Kathmandu

Job Vacancy

The German Embassy Kathmandu is looking to hire a Political Adviser from 01 October 2023 onwards.

Your Tasks:

- Proactive written/oral analysis and strategy proposals on current political as well as economic affairs, thus supporting the Embassy's ongoing reporting through independent research, in particular with the focus on:
- Nepal's domestic policy, including the development of democracy, the transformation process, and federal structures
- Nepal's foreign policy, including the Geopolitical and security situation, also in regional and multilateral organizations
- Nepal's economic policy, also in a regional context
- Economic cooperation and sector development
- Environment and climate change impact policies
- Human Rights, Dealing with the Past, Women Peace & Security
- Security matters
- You will also be supporting colleagues with project work, delegations and events as well as social media and press.
- You will be the Embassy's point of contact for Ministries and local organisations
- You would also assist with translation and interpretation during meetings.

Your Skills and Qualifications:

- You hold a Masters degree in political science, security studies, Law or journalism or any related subject
- You have professional experience in a related political environment

- You are a talented researcher, analyst and strategist with a network of contacts and will acquire in-depth knowledge of the topics of interest to the Embassy
- You show an excellent command of English language in speaking, reading and writing ( or equivalent), experience with translation and/or interpretation would be an asset
- You show an excellent command of Nepali in speaking, reading and writing. Knowledge of other Nepali languages would be an asset.
- You already have adequate German language skills and/or are willing to learn up to reach a good command
- Any experience with social media and press communication would be an asset
- You have the ability to work in an independent and self-reliant way
- You are reliable, honest and diligent
- You are flexible and willing to also work outside normal working hours and on Nepali public holidays

The German Government is committed to diversity and inclusion within its workforce, thus applicants from all national, ethnic and religious backgrounds including persons with disabilities are encouraged to submit their applications. Furthermore, applications from all genders (women, men and third) are welcome.

Foreigners applying need to hold a valid residence and work permit.

If you are interested in this vacancy, please send your complete application along with your CV in German language, required certificates, reference letters and a copy of your passport/ID before 31 July 2023 to info@kathmandu.diplo.de; subject: "Political Advisor"

Kathmandu, 28 June 2023

German Embassy
Job Application "Political Advisor"
Gyaneshwar Marga 690
P.O. Box 226, Kathmandu